Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	During the financial year under review, the Nomination Committee has completed the Board’s evaluation questionnaire relating to environmental, social and governance or sustainability, however, the performance evaluations of Senior Management of the Group did not cover sustainability performance evaluation.
		Currently, the Board reviews the Group’s sustainability performance as a whole and holds relevant Management personnel accountable for addressing sustainability risks and opportunities through the Company’s monitoring and reporting process.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Management team, led by the Executive Chairman is responsible for implementing the sustainability strategies and driving the Group's sustainability performance. They achieve this by conducting material assessments to identify key sustainability focuses, ensuring initiatives are integrated and setting performance metrics to monitor progress. The team actively engages with stakeholders to align sustainability efforts with their concerns and expectations. The Board receives an annual update on overall sustainability performance which is closely monitored throughout the year.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	During the year, the Nomination Committee had reviewed and assessed the experience, skills, time commitment and expertise of the Directors who are due for re-election and was satisfied that they had fulfilled the required fit and proper criteria set by the Board. With the recommendation of the Nomination Committee, the Board having reviewed the vast knowledge and experience, approved their re-election as Directors of the Company. An annual assessment will be carried out annually to review the contribution of each Director. A summary of the assessment will be presented to the Nomination Committee for consideration and to develop recommendations and/or an action plan were determined necessary or desirable. The Board concluded that the current Directors own a diverse mix of skills matrix, knowledge, experience and age. The Chairman possesses the leadership to safeguard the stakeholders' interest and ensure the development of the Group.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	As at the date of this report, half of the Board comprise of Independent Directors. The Board comprised of five (5) members, of which three (3) are Independent Directors. Independent Directors are expected to challenge management proposals constructively and to examine and review management performance in meeting agreed objectives and targets. In addition, they are expected to draw on their own experience and knowledge, where appropriate, in respect of any challenges facing the Group and in relation to the development of proposals on strategy. The current size and composition of the Board is within a range which is appropriate. The Board believe that the current size is sufficiently structured to enable its Board Committees to properly assist the Board in the execution of its duties and responsibilities. The spread of nationalities, age and gender of the Directors reflects the geographical reach of the Group and we consider that the Board as a whole has the appropriate blend of skills, knowledge and experience, from a wide range of industries and backgrounds, necessary to lead the Group.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders’ approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	None of the Directors of the Company has served a cumulative term limit of more than nine (9) years. Nonetheless, Independent Directors who have served the Company for a cumulative term of more than nine (9) years will submit themselves for annual shareholders’ approval at the Annual General Meeting of the Company to be retained as Independent Directors. The justifications for retention would be provided in the notes to the notice of the Annual General Meeting for shareholders’ consideration. The recommendation by the Board for retaining such Independent Directors would be based on their independence, incumbent knowledge and contributions to the strategic objectives and stewardship of the Company.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.
Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board, assisted by the Nomination Committee (“NC”) is committed to ensure that the Board and Senior Management are sufficiently diverse and appropriately balanced. In making recommendations to the Board on suitable candidate of Directors, the NC, through recommendations of fellow Directors or major shareholders or through independent sources, where required, evaluates candidates based on, amongst others, their competencies, commitment, professionalism, integrity, independence and the ability to exercise sound judgment relevant to the Company’s business. In addition, the NC takes into consideration the gender, nationality, age, culture and socio-economy backgrounds in deriving a decision. In the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the Committee shall also evaluate the candidates’ ability to discharge such responsibilities/functions as expected from Independent Non-Executive Directors. The Company is committed to ensure that the Board and Senior Management are sufficiently diverse and appropriately balanced. This is further supported by the annual assessment carried out by the NC. The Board concluded that the skills and experience of the current Directors satisfy the requirements of the skills matrix and they possess the leadership to safeguard the stakeholders’ interest and ensure the development of the Group.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board appreciates the importance of using a variety of approaches and sources to ensure that it is able to identify the most suitable candidates. In this regard, the Nomination Committee is charged with the responsibility of identifying, selecting and recommending to the Board suitable candidates, taking into account factors such as personal attributes, skills, experience, competence, capability, time and commitment to effectively discharge the fiduciary duties and functions with due consideration of diversity required of Directors. As there is no “one size fits all” and taking into account the business environment that the Company operates in, the Board authorises the Nomination Committee the option of using external independent sources, if required, in the recruitment of candidates for directorship above and beyond referrals from shareholders, Directors and Senior Management. Evaluation of candidates include the review of resumes, reference checks and interviews based on criteria established in Paragraph 2.20A of the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad. The Nomination Committee will then recommend chosen candidates to the Board for consideration. This Practice is specified in the Terms of Reference of the Nomination Committee.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The profiles of the Directors are enclosed in the Annual Report of the Company. As at the date of this Annual Report, none of the Independent Non-Executive Directors has any business relationship nor conflict of interest with the Group which would influence their independent judgement to act in the best interest of the Group. The Board of Directors via the Nomination Committee had assessed the suitability and performance of the Directors prior to recommending their re-election to shareholders for approval at the Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) of the Company. A statement is included in the notice of the AGM to detail the support and rationale for the resolution pertaining to the re-election of Directors.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: During the year, the Board conducted an internally facilitated Board assessment via the Nomination Committee to annually review the competencies and composition of the Board.  The results and recommendations from the evaluation of the Board and its committees are reported to the Board for full consideration and action. The scope of the assessment comprised the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Board's structure, size and composition as well as the composition of the board committees;</li><li>• The effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the effectiveness of the board committees;</li><li>• The character, experience, integrity and competence of the Directors and to ensure they have the time to discharge their respective roles;</li><li>• The mix of skills and experience of each individual Director including the core competencies of the Non-Executive Directors; and</li><li>• The level of independence of Directors.</li></ul> The outcome of the evaluation shows the current size and composition of the Board is appropriate and well-balanced with the right mix of skills, comprising individuals of high calibre, credibility and with the necessary skills and qualifications to enable the Board to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

Practice 13.5

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: The Fifty-Ninth Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) of the Company was conducted on a virtual basis on 27 November 2023. The Company had engaged Agmo Digital Solutions Sdn. Bhd. (“Agmo”) as the poll administrators to provide the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Agmo had verified the eligibility of shareholders/corporate representatives/proxies to attend the AGM based on the General Meeting Record of Depositors and upon the cut-off date and time for proxy form submission. The online platform provided was secured exclusively for the members with approved registration for the Remote Participation and Voting (“RPV”) at the AGM. The online platform has a moderator function to assist the Company in tracking the questions posed by the shareholders during AGM. A questions and answers session has been dedicated by the Company during the AGM to allow interaction between the Directors and the shareholders. Whilst the members were in attendance in the proceedings of the AGM, they would be able to cast their votes and submit any questions which they wish to raise. Questions received from shareholders were made visible to all meeting participants and were read out clearly by the Chairman of the meeting followed by responses by the Board or senior management. Subsequent to the meeting, the questions and responses were documented in the AGM minutes and published on the corporate website of the Company.
